Al-Isra' and Al-Miraj

took His servant by night from the sacred to the remote house of worship.

Al-Isra'
17:1

During the persecution of the Prophet and when he seemed about to crush Islam, the Prophet had an extraordinary experience, known as the Night Journey and the Ascension.

From a spot next to the Kabah, the Archangel Jibril took him on a strange, white winged journey from Makkah to al-Aqsa mosque in Jerusalem. From there Jibril took the Prophet through سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ، لَيْلًا مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ

الْمَكِّيِّ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا الَّذِي بَنَيْنَا حَوْلَهُ، لِنُرِيَهُ، مِنْ آيَاتِنَا إِنَّهُ هُوَ

took His servant by night from the sacred [at Makkah] to the remote house of worship the precincts of which We have blessed, so show him some of Our signs. Surely, it is He is All Hearing, and All Seeing.

Al-Isra' 17:1

Heaven's gates, where he saw countless angels. He was then taken through the Seven Heavens, one by one. Then, the Prophet passed through many veils, until at last he came into the divine Light of Allah's Presence, which brought peace and banished all sense of time. Then, he was brought back to earth where he was amazed to find the spot where he had lain still warm, and the cup he had tipped over still emptying. This had all taken place in less than a moment!

The next morning, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ told the Quraysh of his experience. But many doubted his word.
However, the Prophet's description of Jerusalem, and the caravans he had seen on his return to Makkah, convinced them of his truthfulness.
